

Neighborhood Planning Unit M Bylaws

Adopted: —

Effective: January 1, ~~2025~~ 2026

ARTICLE I. Purpose, Functions, and Duties

In accordance with City of Atlanta ordinances:

- Neighborhood Planning Unit M (hereafter referred to as NPU M) is hereby established for the purpose of advising the City of Atlanta, including the Mayor, City Council, and any Department or Official of the City, on all matters affecting the environment, the well-being of the residents, and the general livability of the neighborhoods within NPU M. Such advice may cover, but is not limited to, land use, zoning, housing, community facilities, human resources, social and recreational programs, traffic and transportation, environmental quality, open space and parks, public safety, and other City services.
- NPU M shall be construed to be both the Neighborhood Planning Committee made up of the members of NPU M, and the geographic area as defined by the City of Atlanta.
- NPU M will provide input into the Comprehensive Development Plan (CDP) for the City and will assist City agencies in determining priority needs of NPU M. Advice and recommendations may also be given to other public and private agencies on any matter affecting the general livability of NPU M.
- In general, NPU M will provide a means by which citizens' input can be provided to the City government and a means by which information concerning the operation of City government can be provided to the citizens.
- ~~NPU M shall be construed to be both the Neighborhood Planning Committee made up of the members of NPU M, and the geographic area as defined by the City of Atlanta.~~

ARTICLE II. Membership

Section 1. Individuals

- Any person 18 years of age or older whose primary place of residence is within NPU M, or any corporation, organization, institution or agency which owns property or has a place of business or profession within NPU M is eligible for membership in NPU M.

Section 2. Organizations

- Any corporation, organization, institution or agency who otherwise meets membership requirements (Section 1) shall be entitled to only one representative per meeting and shall designate that representative in writing to the Assistant Secretary.

ARTICLE III. General Body Meetings

Section 1. Meetings

- NPU M shall regularly meet on the fourth Monday of each month (January through November), or at the call of the Chairperson or a majority of the Executive Committee except when coinciding with a recognized state or federal holiday.
- The meeting location shall be indicated in the NPU M agenda sent to NPU M members by the Department of City Planning.
- In consultation with the Executive Committee, the Chairperson may cancel or reschedule a regular meeting when there is an Act of God, or any unavoidable circumstances that make it impossible to meet.
- Notice of meeting cancellation will be sent via email to Certified Civic Association representatives to notify their communities and posted on NPU M's website.

Section 2. Quorum

- A quorum of NPU M shall consist of ten (10) members attending the meeting, including representatives from at least two (2) Certified Civic Associations.

Section 3. Agenda

- The agenda for the meeting shall be determined by the Chairperson in consultation with the Executive Committee and the Department of City Planning.
- The agenda shall be distributed by e-mail or other means to NPU M members in advance of each monthly meeting.
- The NPU M General Body Meeting Agenda will be closed to modification one week prior to the General Body Meeting. Should revisions be required, those changes will be tracked and will be announced by the chair at the beginning of the General Body Meeting.
- Once all revisions have been announced, the General Body will vote to approve the meeting agenda as revised by a majority vote.

ARTICLE IV. Voting

Section 1. Criteria

- Except as provided in Article IX, each member in attendance at a meeting of NPU M
 - who meets membership requirements (Article II),
 - signed in on the meeting registration form and
 - whose primary place of residence is within the NPU, or any person, corporation, organization, institution or agency which owns property or has a place of business or profession within the NPU, shall have one vote and shall have the right to exercise that vote on all issues which come before the NPU without attendance requirements, dues payments or any other limitation.

Section 2. Voting Challenge

- Any member in good standing may challenge the vote of any other member on the basis of them not being eligible to vote.

Section 3. Limits

- No person, corporation, organization, institution or agency who otherwise qualifies as a member on more than one basis as provided for herein shall have more than one (1) vote.
- Should any person hold more than one position within the NPU leadership, they shall have no more than one (1) vote.

Section 4. Methods

- Except where these bylaws or our rules provide otherwise, all actions of NPU M shall be by a majority vote which shall be defined as more than half of the votes cast by persons legally entitled to vote at a regular or properly called meeting at which a quorum is present.
- Proxies shall not be accepted.

Section 5. Official Records

- The attendance records maintained by the Assistant Secretary, in consultation with the ~~Neighborhood Planning Coordinator~~ Department of City Planning, shall be the official basis for the determination of which members shall be eligible to vote or hold office in NPU M.

Section 6. Membership Requirement Amendments

- Any changes to Article IV.1 (Criteria) shall become effective January 1st following adoption.

ARTICLE V. Executive Committee

Section 1. Purpose

Section 2. Annual NPU Review

- These bylaws shall be approved annually by a majority of the Residents (as defined in Section 6-3012 of Atlanta City Code) of the NPU in attendance at the meeting where the bylaws are voted upon.
- At said meeting, there shall be no restrictions upon a Resident's right to vote on the approval or disapproval of the bylaws.

Section 3. Annual City Review

- These bylaws shall be submitted by the Secretary to the Department of City Planning no later than September 30 of each year for compliance with city code requirements unless a specific extension or change in submission date has been requested and approved by the Department of City Planning.

ARTICLE X. POLICIES AND OPERATIONAL RULES

- Policies and operational rules may be adopted by the NPU to facilitate the effectiveness of the NPU's operations and shall be attached to these bylaws as an addendum.

ARTICLE XI. RULES OF ORDER

- The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the procedures of NPU M and all of the NPU M Standing Committees in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws and any special rules of order NPU M may adopt.
- Rules may be suspended by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote.

ARTICLE B. NEIGHBORHOOD PLANNING

Sec. 6-3011. Statement of policy and purpose.

The council finds that it is in the public interest for the City of Atlanta to have an organized program of neighborhood planning. It is the purpose of this article to provide an opportunity both for the citizenry formally to provide input into the comprehensive development plan of the city and to provide a means by which information concerning the operation of city government can be provided to the citizens of Atlanta. Further, it is the policy of the city to coordinate the recommendations of neighborhood planning units with the formulation of the city's budget, both capital and operating, in order that the comprehensive development plan be an effective policy guide for the orderly development of the city.

(Code 1977, § 6-3011; Ord. No. 1999-81, § 1, 11-10-99)

Sec. 6-3012. Definitions.

As used in this article:

- (1) Neighborhood means a geographic area either with distinguishing characteristics or in which the residents have a sense of identity and a commonality of perceived interest, or both. Factors that may contribute to neighborhood identity include shared development, history, architecture, social and economic relationships, physical boundaries and the existence of one or more broadly representative neighborhood organizations devoted to neighborhood preservation and improvement.
- (2) Neighborhood planning unit, hereinafter also referred to as N.P.U., means (1) a geographic area composed of one or more contiguous neighborhoods, which have been defined by the department of planning, and development and neighborhood conservation based on criteria previously established by the department and approved by the council for the purpose of developing neighborhood plans and (2) a body of residents of such geographic area organized for the purpose of engaging in comprehensive planning matters affecting the livability of neighborhoods.
- (3) Resident shall mean any person 18 years of age or older whose primary place of residence is within the neighborhood planning unit, or any corporation, organization, institution or agency which owns property or has a place of business or profession within the N.P.U. Each resident may hold office in only one N.P.U. Each resident, meaning any person who resides within the N.P.U., or any corporation, organization, institution or agency which owns property or has a place of business or profession, shall have one vote and shall have the right to exercise that vote on all issues which come before the N.P.U.; provided that an N.P.U. may adopt bylaws calling for representative voting, as long as the adoption and revision of such bylaws is by vote open to all such residents without attendance requirements, dues payments, or any other limitation.
- (4) Council district planning committee means a body of residents of a council district formed from representatives of the neighborhood planning units to coordinate council district plans. The council member for the district may initiate the organization of these committees, but may not hold any office in any of the committees. These committees may continue in existence from year to year.

(Code 1977, § 6-3012; Ord. No. 1999-78, § 1, 11-10-99; Ord. No. 1999-81, § 1, 11-10-99)

Sec. 6-3013. Neighborhood planning units.

- (a) Designation. The department of city planning shall recommend neighborhood planning units, as defined in section 6-3012(2) of this chapter, which shall include all areas of the city. N.P.U.'s may comprise as many, or as few neighborhoods as practicable and may cross council district boundaries. Such designation shall be approved by the Atlanta City Council. The designation of the N.P.U. shall be based on criteria previously established by the department of planning and development and approved by the council and shall include the consideration of existing citizens' organizations' boundaries which may exist at the time of designation, as well as provisions for the change of neighborhood boundaries when necessary.
- (b) Preservation of information. The bureau of planning shall make available to neighborhood units basic information, including but not limited to, the areas of land use, transportation, community facilities, programmed capital improvements, housing, human resources, social and recreational programs, environmental quality, open space and parks and citizen involvement in planning and zoning to assist them in neighborhood planning activities. This information shall be presented in such a manner as to be readily recognizable to the residents of each N.P.U. This information shall be presented graphically when practicable.
- (c) Neighborhood planning units. The neighborhood planning unit may recommend an action, a policy or a comprehensive plan to the city and to any city agency on any matter affecting the livability of the neighborhood, including, but not limited to, land use, zoning, housing, community facilities, human resources, social and recreational programs, traffic and transportation, environmental quality, open space and parks; assist city agencies in determining priority needs for the neighborhood; review items for inclusion in the city budget and make recommendations relating to budget items for neighborhood improvement; and advise the bureau of planning on the preparation of the 15 and five-year comprehensive development plans.
- (d) Accountability. Neighborhood planning units shall be accountable to the residents of the area they represent.

(Code 1977, § 6-3013; Ord. No. 1999-81, § 1, 11-10-99; Ord. No. 2004-08, § 8, 2-10-04; Ord. No. 2022-35(22-O-1747), § 1, 10-12-22)

Sec. 6-3014. Public hearings.

- (a) Manner in which hearings are to be held. The bureau of planning shall hold hearings to focus on the six study areas as defined in the currently adopted comprehensive development plan. Said hearings shall be held in such a manner that there be not less than one public hearing for each study area prior to the preparation of any comprehensive development plan.
- (b) Notice. The city shall provide notice of the number of hearings and their dates, times and places. Such notice shall be provided through advertising in a newspaper of general circulation, included on the regular N.P.U. agenda mail-out and provided as a public service announcement.

(Code 1977, § 6-3014; Ord. No. 1999-81, § 1, 11-10-99; Ord. No. 2004-08, § 9, 2-10-04)

Code of ordinances reference—Boards, councils and commissions, § 2-1851 et seq.

Cross reference(s)—Zoning, § 16-01.001 et seq.

Sec. 6-3015. Schedule of citizen involvement.

- (a) The mayor shall prepare a schedule of citizen involvement regarding the draft of the comprehensive development plan. This report shall be presented to the community development/human resources committee at a regularly scheduled meeting in January of the year in which the plan is to be updated.
- (b) The mayor shall coordinate citizen participation in planning, under provisions of this article and shall be responsible for advising the council on citizen plans.

(Code 1977, § 6-3015; Ord. No. 1999-81, § 1, 11-10-99; Ord. No. 2004-08, § 10, 2-10-04)

Sec. 6-3016. Bylaws.

- (a) (1) N.P.U. bylaws shall be submitted to the bureau of planning no later than September 30 of each year for compliance with city code requirements.
 - (2) Said bylaws shall become effective January 1st of the following year.
 - (3) This article (Code sections 6-3011 through 6-3019) shall be attached as an exhibit to the bylaws of each N.P.U. with each annual submission to the bureau of planning.
- (b) All neighborhood planning units shall have bylaws for their members to follow which shall be approved annually by a majority of the residents (as defined in section 6-3012(3)) of the N.P.U. in attendance at the meeting where the bylaws are voted upon. At said meeting there shall be no restrictions upon a resident's right to vote on the approval or disapproval of the bylaws. These bylaws shall be filed with the department of planning, development and neighborhood conservation. The bylaws shall be reviewed and approved annually by the bureau of planning and the neighborhood planning unit for clarity as to voting procedures, representativeness of all interested parties within the neighborhood planning unit, and a description of the duties of any subcommittees or officers.
- (c) Recommendations of an N.P.U shall not be accepted by the council until the N.P.U. has complied with subsection (a) above.

(Code 1977, § 6-3016; Ord. No. 1999-81, § 1, 11-10-99)

Sec. 6-3017. Elections.

- (a) Elections shall take place during October or November of every calendar year. If an election(s) has not been held by November 30. Said election(s) shall be conducted by the bureau of planning during the month of December.
- (b) Any person holding the office of chairperson or equivalent, which means presiding officer, must be a person 18 years of age or older whose primary place of residence is within the particular NPU.

(Code 1977, § 6-3017; Ord. No. 1995-68, § 1, 10-24-95; Ord. No. 1999-81, § 1, 11-10-99)

Sec. 6-3018. Voting procedures.

- (a) Voting procedures shall be established by each neighborhood planning unit. Although the procedure may vary among neighborhood planning units, bylaws describing the voting procedures shall contain provisions delineating the eligibility of voters within the neighborhood planning units and the voting process itself for issues as well as officer elections.

(b) Each resident as defined in section 6-3012(3) shall represent one vote and may hold office in only one N.P.U.

(c) All NPU and committee meetings must be open to the public.

(Code 1977, § 6-3018; Ord. No. 1995-68, § 2, 10-24-95; Ord. No. 1999-81, § 1, 11-10-99)

Sec. 6-3019. Prohibition of political forums.

Neighborhood planning unit meetings shall not be used for political forums or campaigning for city, county, state, or federal elections.

(Code 1977, § 6-3019; Ord. No. 1999-81, § 1, 11-10-99)
